List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

The Longdan staff will be trained in regards to the protection of the licensing objectives. CCTV is installed all around the shopping centre and within the premises. The 'Under 25' policy will always be present on the walls, and we will enforce it as we do in all of our current branches. We will also follow the fire and safety regulations, and be vigilant with matters concerning public safety. Lastly we will use any recommendations given by the authorities/police to implement and promote the four licensing objectives.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Longdan Oriental supermarket will have two security systems in place, one managed by us and the other by Crawley Shopping Centre. With nine other stores in London, we have numerous members of staff who are experienced in resolving issues related to crime and disorder. Crawley Shopping Centre also employs security personnel to help resolving if there is a need for them to get involved. Our other stores use the Challenge 25 policy to great effect and our supermarket in Crawley Shopping Centre will be the same. Our experienced members of staff also keep a log of an events and images of members of public who have been disorderly, prohibiting them from entering the store on future encounters.

c) Public safety

Here at Longdan we adhere to a very strict set of rules when dealing with violent, intoxicated or any individuals who threaten the safety of the customers. Our staff are trained to dissolve any of these encounters quickly to minimize the inconvenience caused and in this unlikely event the Crawley district will always be contacted. The health safety and fire regulations will be put in place and will be also followed without fail. Longdan will make sure that all procedures are in place and ensure that all fire exits are checked regularly to make sure that they are clear of obstructions at all times. The emergency lighting and smoke detectors will be inspected at appropriate intervals to ensure that they are in good working order.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Longdan will continue to respect the members of the public. All music played in our store is strictly ambient allowing customers to shop comfortably and the volume will be inaudible from outside the store.

e) The protection of children from harm

Our staff are trained not to serve alcohol to intoxicated parents. As well as using the Challenge 25 scheme, a large proportion of our alcohol is stored within the area which is strictly observed by our staff and on shelves which are out of reach for young children.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
